THE FRIENDSHIP OF GOD

From the treatise Against Heresies by Saint Irenaeus, bishop

O ur Lord, the Word of God, first drew men to God as servants, but later he freed those made subject to him. He himself testified to this: I do not call you servants any longer, for a servant does not know what his master is doing. Instead I call you friends, since I have made known to you everything that I have learned from my Father. Friendship with God brings the gift of immortality to those who accept it.

In the beginning God created Adam, not because he needed man, but because he wanted to have someone on whom to bestow his blessings. Not only before Adam but also before all creation, the Word was glorifying the Father in whom he dwelt, and was himself being glorified by the Father. The Word himself said: Father, glorify me with that glory I had with you before the world was.

Nor did the Lord need our service. He commanded us to follow him, but his was the gift of salvation. To follow the Savior is to share in salvation; to follow the light is to enjoy the light. Those who are in the light do not illuminate the light but are themselves illuminated and enlightened by the light. They add nothing to the light; rather, they are beneficiaries, for they are enlightened by the light.

The same is true of service to God: it adds nothing to God, nor does God need the service of man. Rather, he gives life and immortality and eternal glory to those who follow

Spiritual Journey

Spiritual growth through prayer can never be understood if it is separated from community life. Prayer in the spiritual life leads to community and community to prayer. In community we learn what it means to confess our weakness and to forgive each other. In community we discover our own woundedness, but also a place of healing. In community we learn you, I trust in your word. In you there is kindness and plenteous redemption. Amen.

esus, your own town folks rejected you whom you were trying to help. That must have brought you so much pain, felt shock of what they did to you. After being rejected, you still went off to serve others with the same risk of rejection but now even worst, it cost you your life. Loving Jesus, when people I care and serve reject me, please help me feel what you felt when you were rejected. Strengthen me not to despair when a relationship get challenging. When people say things that hurts my pride, let me be humble. Allow me to seek the truth about myself even though it may hurt me. Always remind me that the truth will set me free.

oving Lord, make us firm in our resolve to renew our ways and change our hearts. Grant us the graces of true conversion, that we may expect opposition from our family and friends in doing what is good for "no prophet is ever accepted in his own country". Lord, send us Your light, athirst are our souls for Your splendor and beauty, lead us to Your holy mountain and dwelling place, for we want to go and behold Your holy countenance. You are our Shepherd, grant us mercy to follow Your voice. In Your Name, Lord Jesus, I pray with Mary, Mother of Mercy. Amen.

and serve him. He confers a benefit on his servants in return for their service and on his followers in return for their loyalty, but he receives no benefit from them. He is rich, perfect

The reason why God requires service from man is this: because he is good and merciful he desires to confer benefits on those who persevere in his service. In proportion to God's need of nothing is man's need for communion with God.

This is the glory of man: to persevere and remain in the service of God. For this reason the Lord told his disciples: You did not choose me but I chose you. He meant that his disciples did not glorify him by following him, but in following the Son of God they were glorified by him. As he said: I wish that where I am they also may be, that they may see my glory.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Lord Jesus, though you are in the form of God, you did not regard equality with God something to be grasped. Rather, you emptied yourself taking the form of a slave, coming in human likeness and found human in appearance. You humbled yourself becoming obedient to death, even death on a cross. As we walk with you the way of the cross and meditate upon each of these stations, we bear in mind the great suffering you endured.

We ask pardon for all our sins that caused you pain, sorrow and death. Holy Spirit, create in us a humble and compassionate heart that seeks to adore the Eucharistic Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. Fill our hearts and minds with the graces of the Holy Eucharist as we grow in our desire to obey the Father's will day by day.

Risen Lord, it is right and just to give you thanks and praise for the salvation you won for us. The power of your resurrection transcends our human imperfections. It is an everlasting source of healing that incessantly fills our lives with love, peace, joy and hope. Your real presence in the Blessed Sacrament made known the faithfulness and merciful love of your Father who orchestrated the irrefutable and wonderful Mystery of our Faith that we celebrate during the Holy Mass.

true humility. Without community, we become individualistic and egocentric. Therefore, spiritual growth always includes formation to life in community. It means an ongoing formation of the heart, in community life, expressed in service to the world.

Healing Prayer

thirst is my soul for you my God. Abide in me as I journey to behold your face. Abba Father, it is difficult to undertsnd why a prophet is not recognized in his own native place. But as I meditate on your word, I realize that if everyone believe in the prophets, then there will be no reason for you to send lesus to die for us and save us. Allowing this to happen is within your divine plan of salvation. Lord Jesus, as has been you always enlighten me with your words. The more I meditate on your word, the more grace I receive from you. So Lord Jesus, I want to say that I hope in Jesus, present and alive in the Sacrament of Love, you said to your apostles; the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out demons and strengthen the weak. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.

You are my hands, my heart, my voice and my feet.

Go forth and become fishers of men.

Offer your time, talent and treasure to those in need.

Spread my word and proclaim my Eucharistic Kingdom.

Abide in my love and remain in my word so you will have eternal life.

Here we are O Lord, ready to do your will. Amen.
