Servant's Prayer

Not to us, Lord, not to us but to your name give glory because of your mercy and faithfulness. In the joy and comfort of your love we live in peace with faith and hope in your grace. You guide and lead us to the path of holiness through the light of Christ and the truth of the Holy Spirit. As members of the body of Christ, we humbly submit our lives to you

Directions

- 1) Believe in the one He sent.
- 2) Meditate on His wondrous deeds.
- 3) Understand the ways of God's precepts.
- 4) Put into action the knowledge we have received.

VISION

With technological advancement to propagate the faith, the Eucharistic Love Community adheres to the evangelization effort of the Roman Catholic Church. Its global presence shall become the cornerstone of the individual calling of all servants. All for God's glory!

MISSION

As zealous friends of the Lord, the Eucharistic Love Community promotes and shares God's healing presence through the Holy Eucharist with strong Marian Devotion.

THE GOOD SHEPHERD (John 10:1-10)

Are you in search of a nourishing food and an excellent physical trainer? Our way of life demands that we take and do only what is best to prolong our life. As such, many take advantage of this desire and give us many choices all for money without real consideration of our welfare. As humans, the more choices we have, the harder it is for us to make a good one. We need one knowledgeable person whom we could trust to help us make the right decision.

In this Gospel, Jesus tells us he is that person whom we could trust. He will help us make the right choices and will never take advantage of our weaknesses to become rich of our needs. Rather, he will give us everything he has for our sake for He has everything and lacks nothing. This sounds fishy to be true! Who in this world will give everything he has for our welfare? Yes, no human being in his right mind will do such a thing. We need one who is greater than a human being who could see our value, who we really are and what we could become beyond the human eyes can see. Jesus being our true caretaker (The Good Shepherd), humbled himself from being God, became human like you and I, gave everything he has including his life to save us not just from death but also freed us from the slavery of sin. With his life, he taught us to make our life simple. All he desire is for us to enjoy life with him.

Because Jesus gives himself freely to us, choosing him becomes very difficult and unattractive. In real life, "brand name products" are more attractive because the more expensive things we have, the more we feel special and privilege.

Spiritual Journey

Spiritual maturity is to accept that faith and hope will both come to an end when we die. But love will remain. Love is eternal. Love comes from God and returns to God. When we die, we will lose everything that life gave us except love. The love with which we lived our lives is the life of God within

2000 HAIL MARY'S DEVOTION

ITS ORIGIN

IT WAS IN 1933, I MONS. JUAN RIU FARRÁN, was fifteen and a half years of age: I was studying in the Salesian Seminary of San Vicente of the Horts, near the City of Barcelona.

Around the 25th of MARCH, 1933, one of my Seminary companions, DANIEL ARA, of the Province of Huesca, in Aragon, said to me: "RIU, I have something interesting to tell to you: THERE IS A PIOUS BELIEF, THAT WHOEVER PRAYS TWO THOUSAND HAILMARYS ON THE 25TH OF MARCH, THE FEAST OF the INCARNATION Of the SON OF GOD, OBTAINS FROM THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, AT LEAST THREE GRACES.

fulfillment of the promise of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

On the 16th of July, 1935, after serving in Holy Mass, my companion DANIEL ARA and I, went on a excursion or stroll by the forests and hills, not far from the city of Gerona, where we were doing the Novitiate, in preparation for the RELIGIOUS SALESIAN PROFESSION. Towards the middle of the day, when we reunited with our Superiors, who accompanied us in the excursion, communicated to us the sad news that my companion DANIEL ARA, when trying to jump a brook, lost his balance and fell into the water and drowned.

On the 17th, a memorable day, at ten o'clock in the morning we exploded, in which we had to leave the Seminary running the risk to be captured and assassinated, as it happened with hundreds of thousands. These were hard and difficult years. The Spanish civil war finally ended on the First of APRIL, 1939, with the defeat of Spanish Communists, by the troops of General Franco, we would be able to return to our Religious Houses to continue our studies in preparation for the priesthood.

ON THE 15TH OF JUNE, 1946, in the Seminary Chapel of Madrid, I was ordained a priest together with TWENTY SALESIAN COMPANIONS, by the Bishop of MADRID, Mons. Leopoldo Eijo and Garay. The SECOND GRACE, requested on the 25th of MARCH, 1933, had been fulfilled.

On the 30th of AUGUST, 1952, I arrived in San Juan, Puerto Rico, to begin my apostolic missionary work in the poorest district of San Juan. And the THIRD GRACE REQUESTED MARCH 25th, 1933, became reality: TO BE A MISSIONARY. After ELEVEN LONG YEARS of missionary work in Puerto Rico, I was invited by Bishop MONS. JOSE FELIX PINTADO, to go to help him in the EASTERN SALESIAN MISSIONS OF ECUADOR, considered like WATERING a DRY TREE, from December 4th, 1964 to the present day, the Blessed VIRGIN Mary had fulfilled her promises.

Today, the DEVOTION OF the TWO THOUSAND HAILMARYS has spread to many countries, thanks to the Marian devotion and fervor of the PHILIPPINE PEOPLE.

That information was imbedded deeply in my mind, and when the day of the 25th of MARCH arrived, I prayed, with much devotion the TWO THOUSAND HAILMARYS, requesting of the Blessed Virgin Mary, THREE GRACES: TO BE SALESIAN, TO BE A PRIEST, AND TO BE A MISSIONARY... and I confidently awaited in the began the spiritual Exercises in preparation for the religious Profession, that took place the 27th of JULY. At that moment, I realized, that the FIRST GRACE requested on the 25 of MARCH, 1933: TO BE SALESIAN was fulfilled.

In July 18th, 1936, the Spanish revolution and persecution

Lord Jesus, You are the celestial Bread of Life, the Bread of Angels & the Medicine for Immortality. You have told the crowd of five thousand who followed You to the other side of the lake that their intentions were not so pure and exhorted them to turn their attention to higher things saying “Do not work for the food that can not last, but work for the food that endures to eternal life”. Jesus, our Lord and God, forgive us for the times when our priorities focus more on achieving material prosperity rather than enriching our spiritual life. Guide and lead us, dear Lord, to lay up treasures in heaven by doing holy works according to Your Divine Will. In Your Great Name, Lord Jesus, with Mary, Our Lady of Grace, we pray. Amen.

THE GOOD ...

Is being the son and daughter of the God who gives us everything we need not special and a great privilege? Is the God who calls us by name and knows every single hair that falls from our head not caring and loving enough for our nothingness? What makes us think we deserve more than Jesus!

If today you heard Jesus voice, harden not your hearts! Know that he is a God who do cares and will die again for you and I if that is what it would take to save us. All we need to do is choose him to be our true caretaker - our Good Shepherd. Having made our choice, spend more time knowing him, training ourself to know his voice , for no other voice is more loving and caring than Jesus our true shepherd!

us. It is the divine, indestructible core of our being. This love not only will remain but will also bear fruit from generation to generation. As we prepare for our death, can we say to those we leave behind, “Don’t let your heart be troubled. The love of God that dwells in my heart will come to you and offer you consolation and comfort.”

My Jesus, you are the Word Incarnate sent by the Father to send a message of love, peace and hope to the world. You are the way, the truth and the life - the salvation of our souls and forgiveness of our sins. We are baptized in your name and we are members of God’s own family. Each of us are called for the purpose of doing the works of God. That is to faithfully witness that Jesus saves those who accept him as their Lord and Savior. Thus he is the bearer of love, peace and hope. Lord, we can only do this if we persevere in following you, abiding in your word and remaining in your love. May the Holy Eucharist we partake strengthen us as we do God’s works. In your name Jesus, I pray. Mary, mother of God pray for us. Amen.

holy will and incline our ear to your living word.

Jesus, present and alive in the Sacrament of Love, you said to your apostles; the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out demons and strengthen the weak. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.

You are my hands, my heart, my voice and my feet.

Go forth and become fishers of men.

Offer your time, talent and treasure to those in need.

Spread my word and proclaim my Eucharistic Kingdom.

Abide in my love and remain in my word so you will have eternal life ...

Here we are O Lord, ready to do your will. Amen.

Healing Prayers

Looking for bread that their body need instead of bread that will give them eternal life. Though I believe that it is only you who could give me the bread of eternal life, like the crowds who followed you, I sometime ask you for the bread that my body needs. I allow my bodily needs come first instead of my spiritual needs. Please sweet Jesus, each time I receive you in the Holy Eucharist, bless my experience that I may be truly transformed inside and out. May I decrease in my self and allow you, my best friend, increase - allowing you shine in my life for all to see and experience.
