Jesus, Eucharistic Lord; we adore you, and we thank you for giving us your body and blood that nourishes, purifies and sanctifies our parched and weary souls. You are the great miracle worker who constantly commune with the

To help us realize our spiritual growth is looking at what the desert father's says, "judging others is a heavy burden, while being judged by others is a light one. Father; praying for guidance and provisions on our behalf. By your compassionate care, five thousand men and thousands of women and children were fed and had their fill. You are the Master Teacher and Messiah who taught with authority, brings good tidings to the poor and set the captives free. You are the Divine Healer who heals the sick and drive out demons. Truly, you are the amazing grace sent from above; the fulfillment of God's promises; our hope for eternity. In my solitude, Lord Jesus, I thirst for your love. Amen.

Sweet Holy Spirit; You are the love of the Father and Son. You are the Breath of God and Light of Christ who dwells in our souls. Wash us clean with the blood of Jesus; the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Purify us with the fire of your love and shine your light to illuminate every dark areas in our lives, and in the whole world that most in need of healing and restoration.

Spirit of Counsel, our Advocate, our Comforter and Friend; guide us in all truth and direct our path to righteousness. Inspire us to listen to the word of God and obey the instructions of Jesus Christ. Empower us to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice that we may not conform ourselves to this age but we will be transformed by the renewal of our minds, that we may discern what is the will of God.

Spirit of Life, Hope and Love; grant us the grace of a cheerful, grateful and contented heart that is filled with love and compassion for others. A heart that is generous, devoted, obedient and hopeful in Christ. Infuse in us the desire to be holy, that we may become powerful intercessors for the sick and those who are in dire need of divine intervention. That we may become worthy witnesses of God's infinite love and mercy.

Shine your light O Holy Spirit! Give us the grace to overflow the glowing light in us, and the healing love that comes from you. Amen.

and trust in Your goodness, mercy and love. You are really, truly and substantially Present in the Holy Eucharist. We kneel and bow down in reverence and adoration for You are "God with us" in the Blessed Sacrament. As we come, adore and give thanks, we no longer hunger and as we believe, we no longer thirst, for we have found You, the Crucified and Risen One, glorified and magnified with us in humility, meekness and great sacrificial love profoundly Present in the Sacred Host we partake in the Holy Mass. "Jesus, my Lord and my God, I am not worthy that You should enter under my roof, say but the word and my soul shall be healed." Mary, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, pray for us. Amen.

Loving Jesus, the crowd of people followed you ever since you fed them with the five loaves and two fishes. They could not see what you want to give them - which is more than their needs in this world. All loving Jesus, please bless me to be hungry of your body and blood - my true food. May I passionately desire to receive your body and blood as often as I can. May I be transformed into your image and likeness as you feed me with your bread of life.

Jesus, you are the true Bread of Life coming down from heaven. Whoever comes to you will never go hungry. Whoever believes in you will not be thirsty. You fill our lives with eternal peace, joy and content that the pleasures of this world cannot give. All the things of this world is just an illusion - just mere passing happiness, and self gratification cannot give us the pure and true desires of our hearts. It is only in having you Jesus as our Lord and Savior that we can find wonders in the beauty of God's purpose. It is only when we partake of your Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist that we feel complete. We are nourished in body, mind, soul and spirit. Our minds, hearts and strength are renewed and it is easy for us to follow you and heed your word. So everyday, our Lord, we praise and worship you for you are the love of our lives. Thank you for making us share in your divine life through the Holy Eucharist we partake. Lord, may the cleansing powers of your body and blood bring healing to those who suffer with physical, emotional and spiritual afflictions. Lord, I am not worthy that you enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed. Our Lady of Fatima, consecrate us to Jesus and help us grow in our devotion to you and to the Most Blessed Sacrament where Jesus is present and alive. Amen.

Heavenly Father, give me the grace to work hard not for material things or authority but to work hard to obtain whatever will nourish my soul and sustain me past death into eternity. Lord Jesus, I believe that you are the only begotten son of God. I believe that you are the bread of God which nourishes my soul and gives me life. I believe that you are truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. Give me the grace to be always worthy to receive you in the Eucharist. You are the wisdom of God. I trust in your words. Heal me. Purify me. I am willing to conform to your way of life O most Holy One. O sweet loving Jesus, I desire to become more like you. I humbly come to do your will. O Holy Spirit, guide me to bring the knowledge and love of Christ to those who do not know Him. In this I pray with the most powerful intercession of the Blessed Mother Mary. Amen.

O LORD, BUT

THE GLORY

Jesus, it is very challenging to experience the truth of receiving your Body and Blood each time I receive you in Communion. This reminds me that a heart-to-heart relationship with you does not come from me but from your Heavenly Father. I am aware that your intimacy is not just for a selected few. However, my desire for intimacy needs to come from a humble, contrite heart that is not stern but free rooted in my deep love for you alone. Loving sweet Jesus, please always stir my heart for your love. Please bless every opportunity of receiving your body and blood be a deep, intimate and personal heart-to-heart experience with you alone.

Jesus, Bread of Life, you are the eternal food and drink that fills our hunger and thirst. Everyday, we taste and see Your goodness. Every time we partake of your body and blood, we are cleansed, purified and sanctified. We become one with you, the Father, and the Holy Spirit and we obtain the grace of eternal life. Thank you Lord for your Paschal Mystery and for sharing your divine mysteries to those who seek you, ask you, call on you, receive you and love you with great faith and hope. May your body and blood O Christ brings us to everlasting life. Amen.

and incline our ear to your living word.

Jesus, present and alive in the Sacrament of Love, you said to your apostles; the kingdom of heaven is at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, drive out demons and strengthen the weak. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give.

You are my hands, my heart, my voice and my feet.

Go forth and become fishers of men.

Offer your time, talent and treasure to those in need.

Spread my word and proclaim my Eucharistic Kingdom.

Abide in my love and remain in my word so you will have

Here we are O Lord, ready to do your will. Amen.
